FOREWORD

We, the annual staff, happily present to you the 80-81 publication of the Dragon.

We would like to express our deep appreciation to those who contributed to make our annual a success.

While flipping through the pages of this book, may you recall treasured moments with valued friends, special occasions, and the best loved scenes that have been packed away in trunks of memories. May the pictures help to make your memories more vivid throughout the passing years.

IN MEMORIAM

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning
of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems
asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For though from out our bourne of
Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

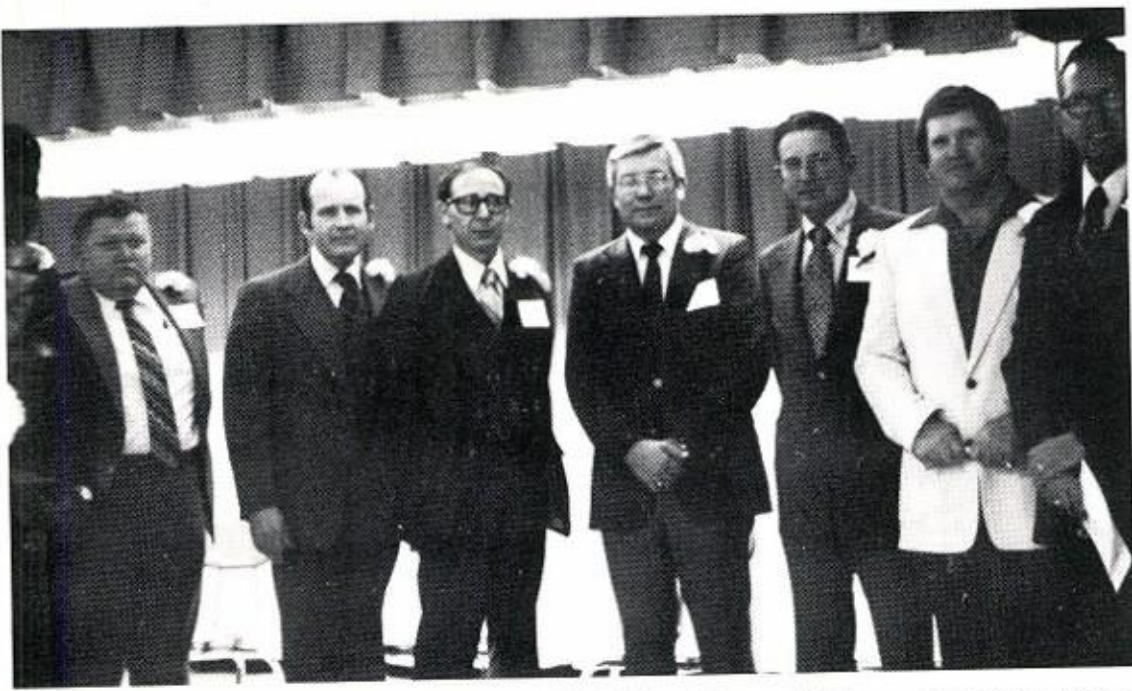

Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Life is eternal; and love is immortal; and death is only a horizon; and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight.

Rossiter Worthington Raymond

BORN: NOVEMBER 10,
1964

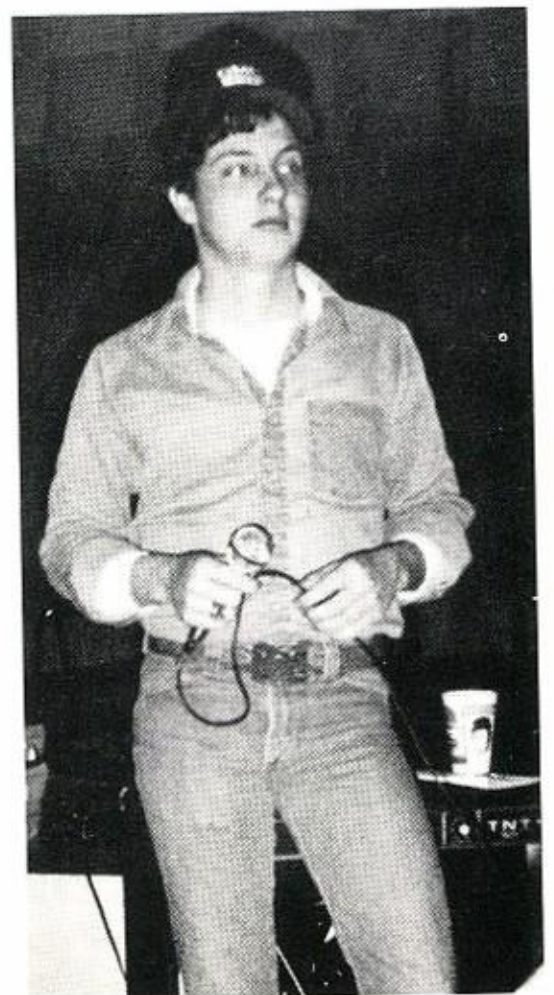

DIED: MARCH 28, 1980

R. A. Lewis, Doyle Ryan, H. E. Fagan, Bill Kirby, Hamp Atkinson, Guy Jones, Derwood Merrill, and M. L. Barron

Redwater ISD dedicated the new school buildings on March 7, 1979. H. E. Fagan was the master of ceremonies and The Ramblers, Redwater's FFA band, provided the music. Doyle Ryan gave the invocation and R. A. Lewis led the benediction. Speakers included Hamp Atkinson, State Representative; Durwood Merrill, American League Umpire; Guy Jones, District Judge; and Bill Kirby, Executive Assistant to the Commissioner of Education. The elementary and high school buildings were open for inspection from 5 to 7 O'clock. Visitors were greeted by elementary principal Robert Eitel, High school principal Nathan Crawford, Superintendent M. L. Barron, and other members of the faculty.

Career Day

At the first Career Day at R.H.S. many careers were explored as each guest explained job opportunities in his field. Among the careers represented were Recruiting, Modeling, Broadcasting, Child Care, Interior Decorating, Secretarial, Banking and Financing, Photography, Teaching, Nursing, and Law. Red River Army Depot, Texarkana Community College, and East Texas State University also sent representatives. Each student was allowed to attend sessions concerning careers most interesting to him.

The students enjoyed the day and learned many things about the world of work. Many thanks to the F.H.A. officers who were the Hostesses.

Dragon Baseball

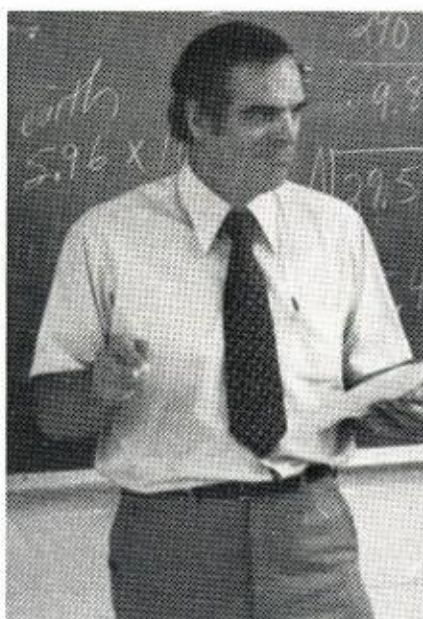

Coach Randy Clift's first year as baseball coach wasn't very successful as far as wins and losses are concerned, but it was first rate in enthusiasm, eagerness, and will power. They went through the season playing their hearts out in every game. The season ended with a 1-7 record. Better luck next time, TEAM.

The RIF (Reading Is Fun) program has been a part of our elementary school for the past two years. Under this program children are given books of their own to read and enjoy.

This year at Halloween Wanda the Witch (Omalee Ryan) helped the costumed children and teachers with the book give-a-way. And at Christmas Old Santa himself appeared.

This program has encouraged a new interest in books and reading; thus, it's been extremely worthwhile.

Christmas Spirit

The Christmas tree was traditionally decorated by the Senior class December 10, 1980. Many students and faculty members commented that it was the best decorated tree yet. All the seniors were proud.

The latest fashion . . .

SANTA'S LIL' HELPERS

The final touch!!!

"Where's Santa?"

"Come on, Robyn, this is FUN"

The page features a high-contrast, abstract geometric design. Large black rectangular blocks are positioned in the top-left and bottom-left corners. A series of parallel white lines, some horizontal and some forming right angles, create a stepped, architectural effect across the page. A prominent white triangular shape points towards the center from the right side. The word "CLASSES" is centered in a white, italicized serif font within the white space.

1981 Senior Class Will

We, the seniors of 1981, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave this document as our last will and testament.

I, Cathy Bemis, will my big mouth to anyone who can take the title away from Angi McCloskey.

I, Ginger Berry, will my ability to keep everyone awake on the Drill Team bus by my loud singing to next years' seniors who all have loud enough mouths to fulfill this task to its greatest.

I, Mike Cheatham, leave my seat in Chemistry and Physics to anyone willing to study for Mr. Kendall's tests.

I, Scott Cole, leave the sharpest boning knife in meat lab to anyone who thinks he/she can use it without cutting a finger off.

I, Michael Corley, will "two foot" of my height to Ricky Smallwood in hopes that someday he will be able to put his own money in the coke machine.

I, DiAnn Culpepper, will my position on the varsity girls' basketball team to anyone who has the devotion and will power to play her heart out.

I, Shyrl Cummings, will my ability to sneak candy out of the machine during FHA meetings to anyone who can do it without getting caught.

I, Robyn Fagan, will my ability to act crazy on the sidelines to Bridget Riley and hope she finds another friend to act crazy with in times of despair.

I, Randy Freeman, will all of my school spirit, enthusiasm, and school participation to anyone who enjoyed high school as much as I did.

I, Kay Green, will my ability to be happy to Angi McCloskey because if being happy were a crime, I'd get a life sentence; therefore, I pass it on to another victim.

I, Akis, will my ability to be understood to Angie Elliott, in hopes that she will be able to talk to John better than I can.

I, Kenneth McMellon, will my title of "super Mex" to the next Mexican who comes to this school.

I, Shirley Page, will my seat in English III to my sister Terri Page.

I, Hoss Pickard, will my seat in Mrs. Sander's Record-Keeping class to anyone who wants it because I'm tired of it.

I, Paula Pipes, will — to the shorthand students who don't do their homework at home — my ability to do it before class without getting caught.

I, Lanny Ries, leave to Carl Culwell my little black book so he might find a date worth going out with; to Arnie Tittle my charm and good looks because he needs all the help he can get; and to Dane Wilbanks all my parking places.

I, Sheila Robinson, will to those who have Mrs. Thompson 2nd period my ability to run around the halls and to sneak candy from the machines during FHA meetings.

I, Terry Shafer, will my big nose to Debbie Jordan in hopes it will block her view of all males.

I, Leon Shavers, will that my brother Cedric will be as slick as I was my last year at RHS and that he will stoop lower than a snake to get what he wants.

I, Chris Shoulders, will my few athletic skills to Mr. Gene Stotts so that he may become a decent ball player.

I, Ken Smith, do hereby will this task of writing a will to all the Seniors of '82 in hopes that they will have a better time of it.

I, Donna Stotts, leave my title of Miss RHS to the next years' winner in hopes that she will be as proud as I am.

I, Jerry Tittle, will my jokes to anyone in Health class who thinks he/she can make everyone laugh as much as I can.

I, David Walls, will my ability to play around with all the girls without getting into trouble to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Gwen Wilson, will my sister Bridgett Riley the best of luck in basketball.

That's amazing.

"Ref, there's ants on the field."

This was the year for the Dragons. We may not have come out District Champions in the standings but in our hearts we will always be champions. The Dragons had one victory of the season which was the Homecoming game against Detroit. The score was 26-6. Cedric Shavers, Tony Page, Carl Culwell, and Bobby McCarty scored respectively for the Dragons. Bobby McCarty also kicked two extra points.

The Redwater Dragonette Drill team under the direction of Kathy Dawson enjoyed another year of hard work, time, patience, and just plain ole fun. This year the Dragonettes had a new sponsor and a new friend who helped them learn their routines. The Dragonettes did routines to the following songs: Birth of the Blues, Vegas, S.W.A.T., and Shake Your Groove Thing. The Dragonettes also performed to the hit song of the year at the last football game against Maud. The name of the song is Another One Bites The Dust. The Dragonettes thoroughly enjoyed this routine, and the fans enjoyed it also.

JUMP SHOT

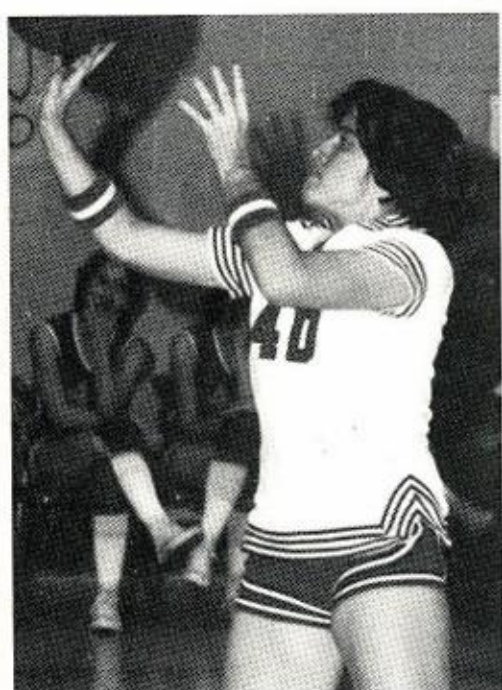

A sprinkle a day . . .

Wake up, Vickie.

Give myself a hand.

I can't spin this ball!

ZEBBIE

TWO for the BLUE

We ARE number 1.

Jump up, Vickie.

I wonder when they'll get here?

Another one bites the dust

May I have this dance?

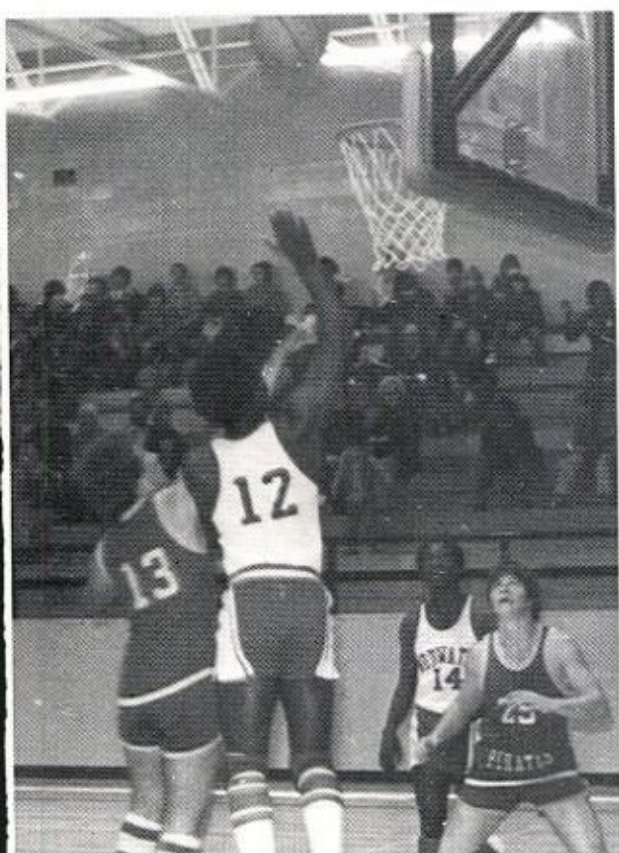

Would you look at that!

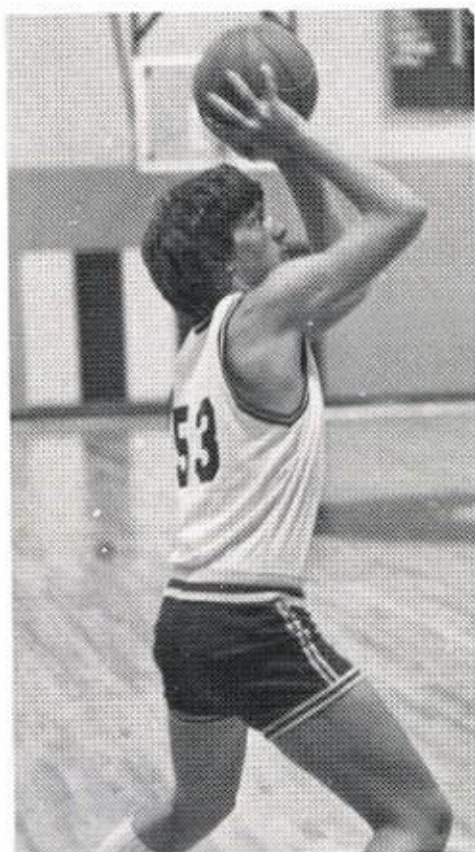

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's, it's . . .

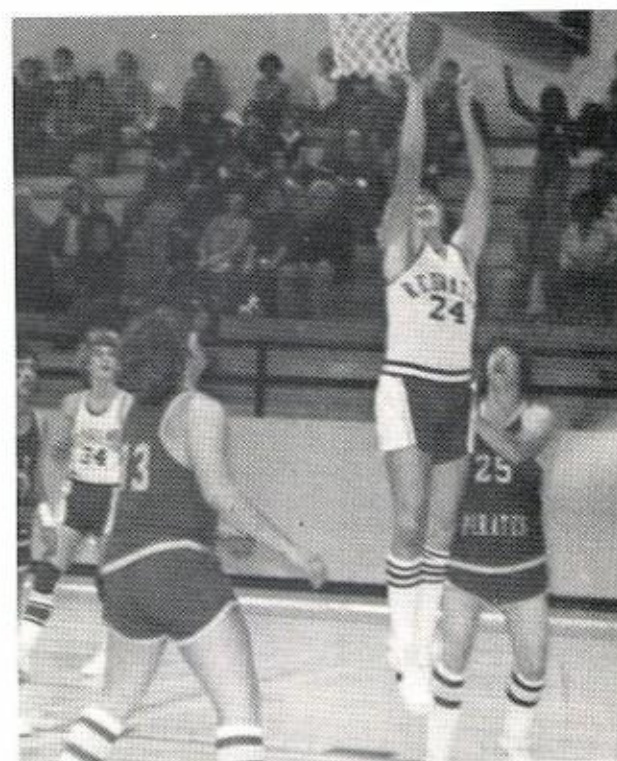

I don't feel so well.

Up, up, and away!

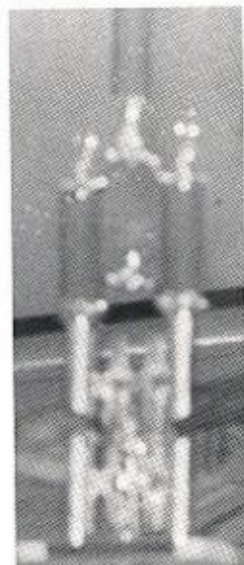

Dig that profile!

The starburst blast off.

Bumpin' boogie

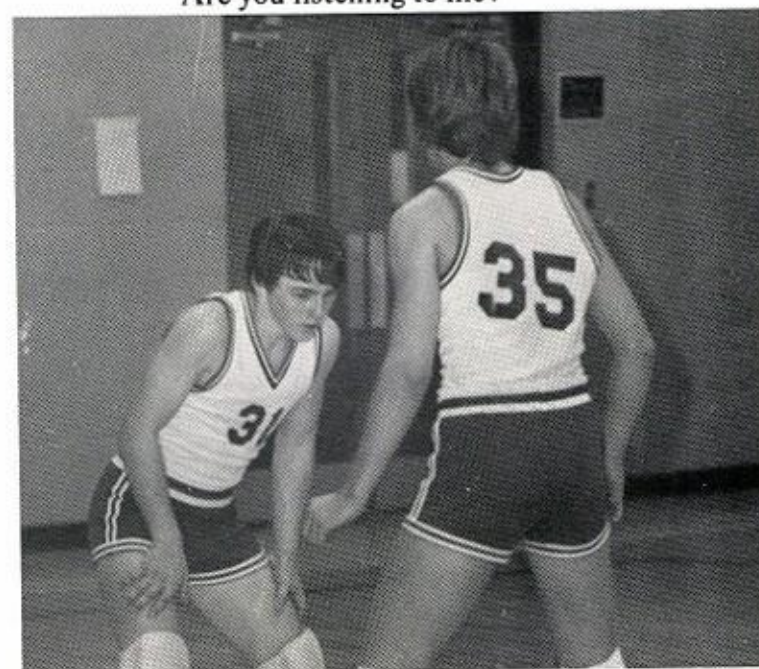

Our trophy!

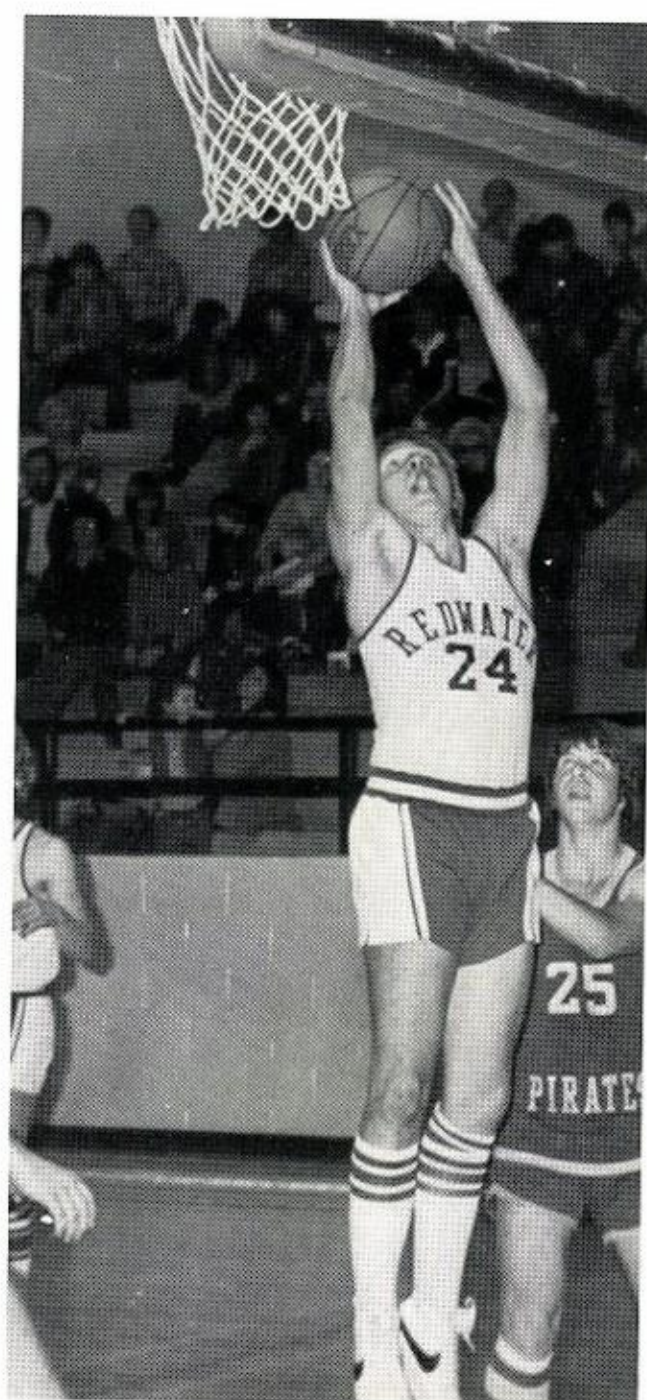

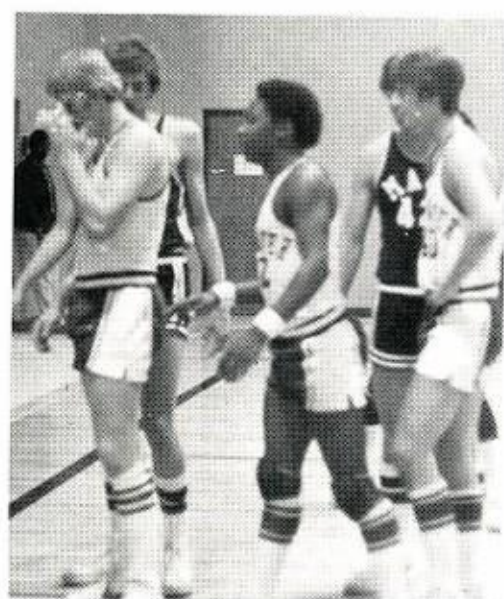

I deserve it!

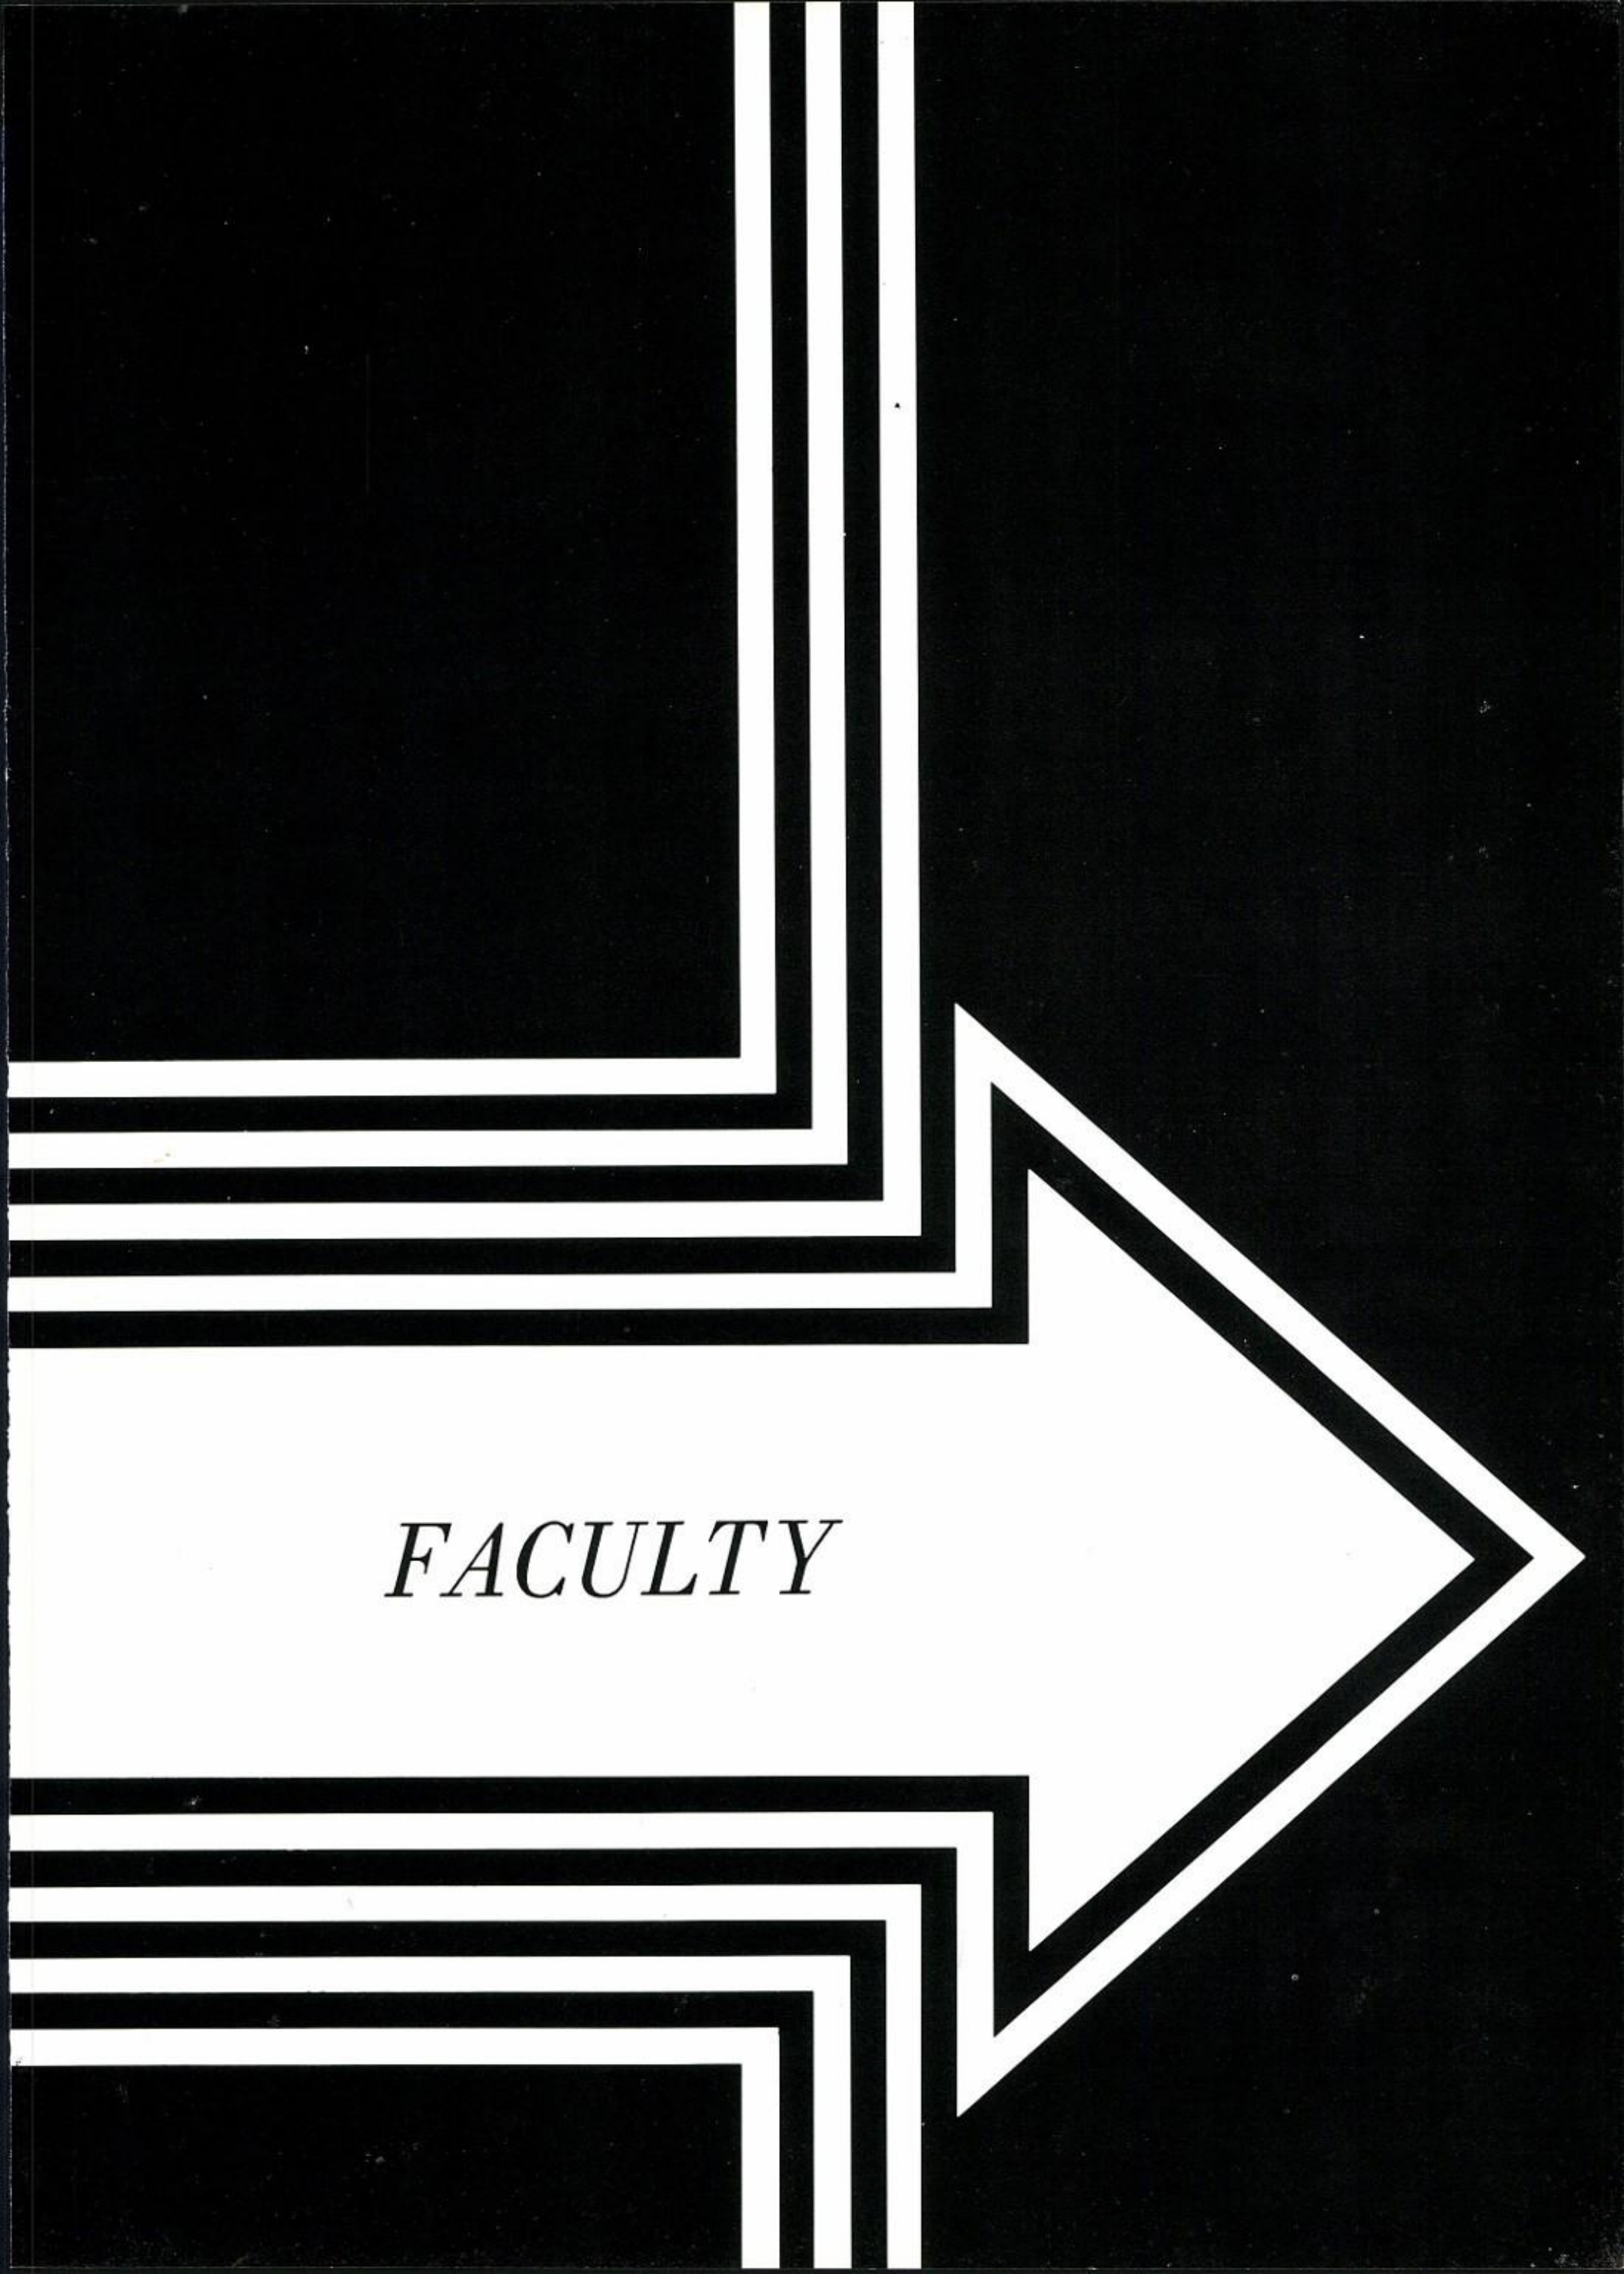

Are you listening to me?

Tell me when.

FACULTY

Superintendent

I extend congratulations to the entire Annual Staff and Mrs. Clark for the very fine work which this annual represents.

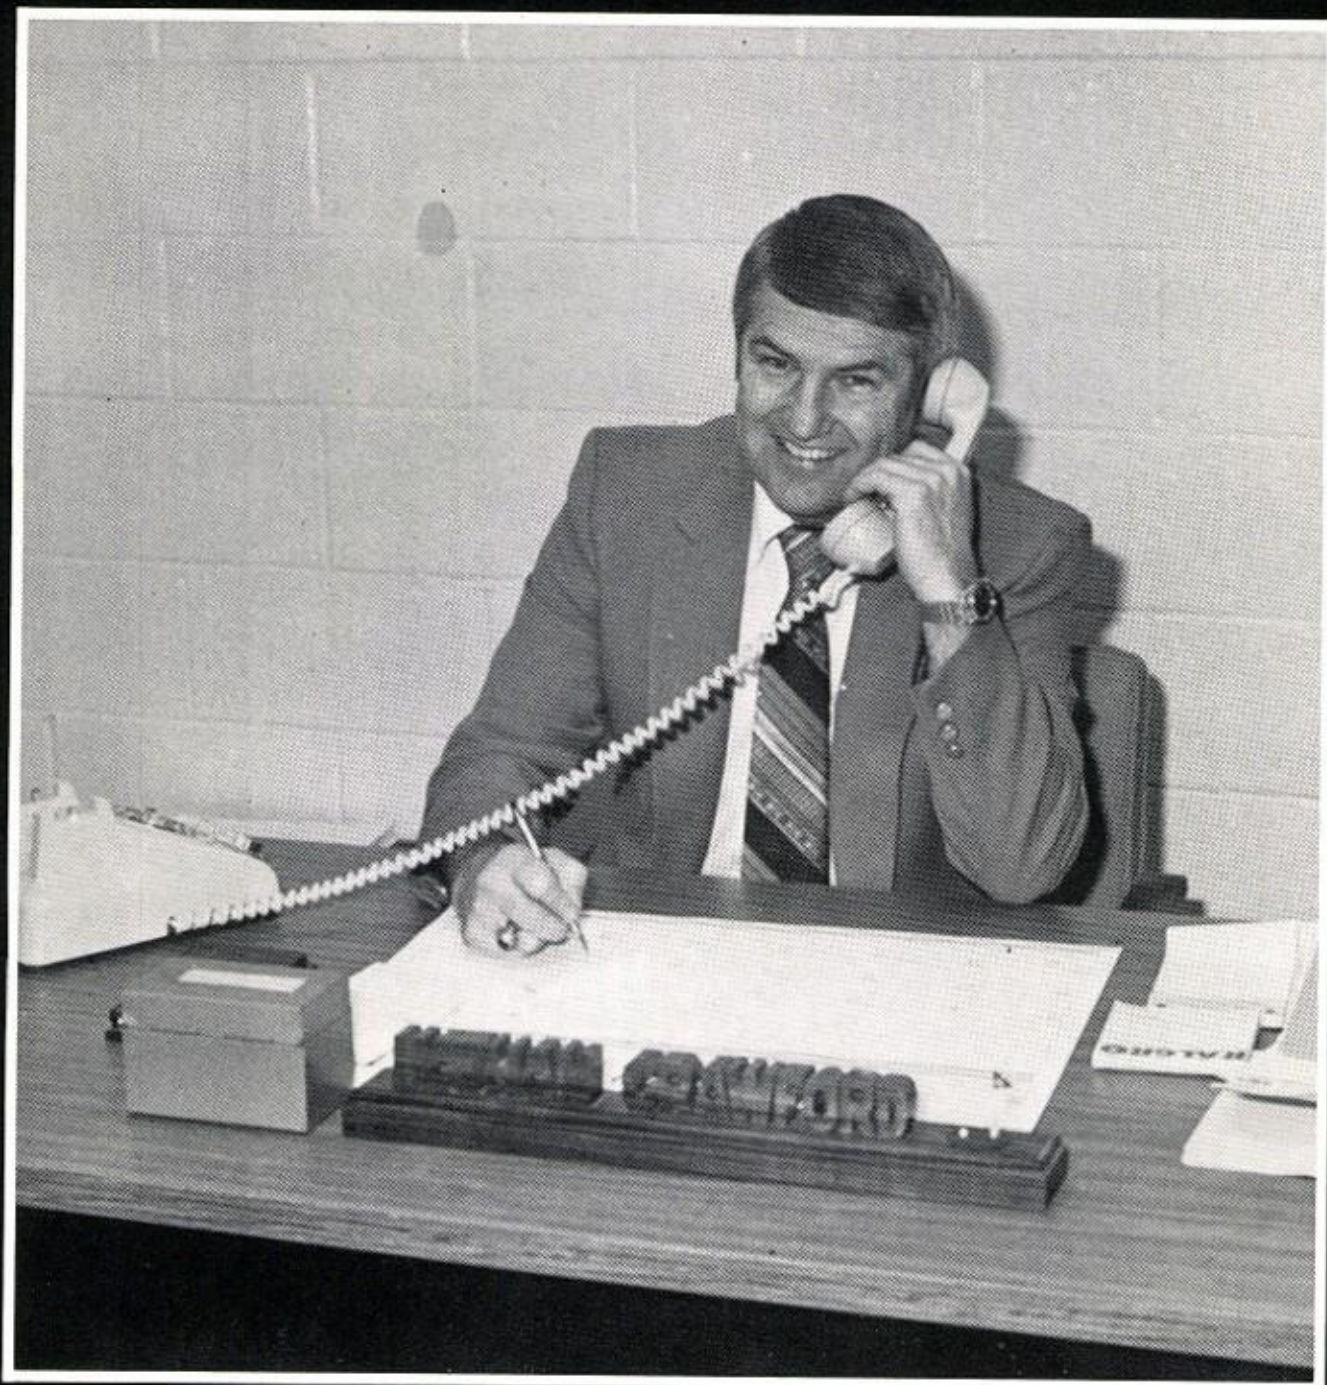

May this publication help perpetuate the fond memories which time might otherwise erase.

Your life's work will be a great success if you carry into your endeavors the same sort of spirit to work together that you have shown in all your undertakings here. Continue to work in harmony and cooperation in every position that you assume.

Sincerely yours,

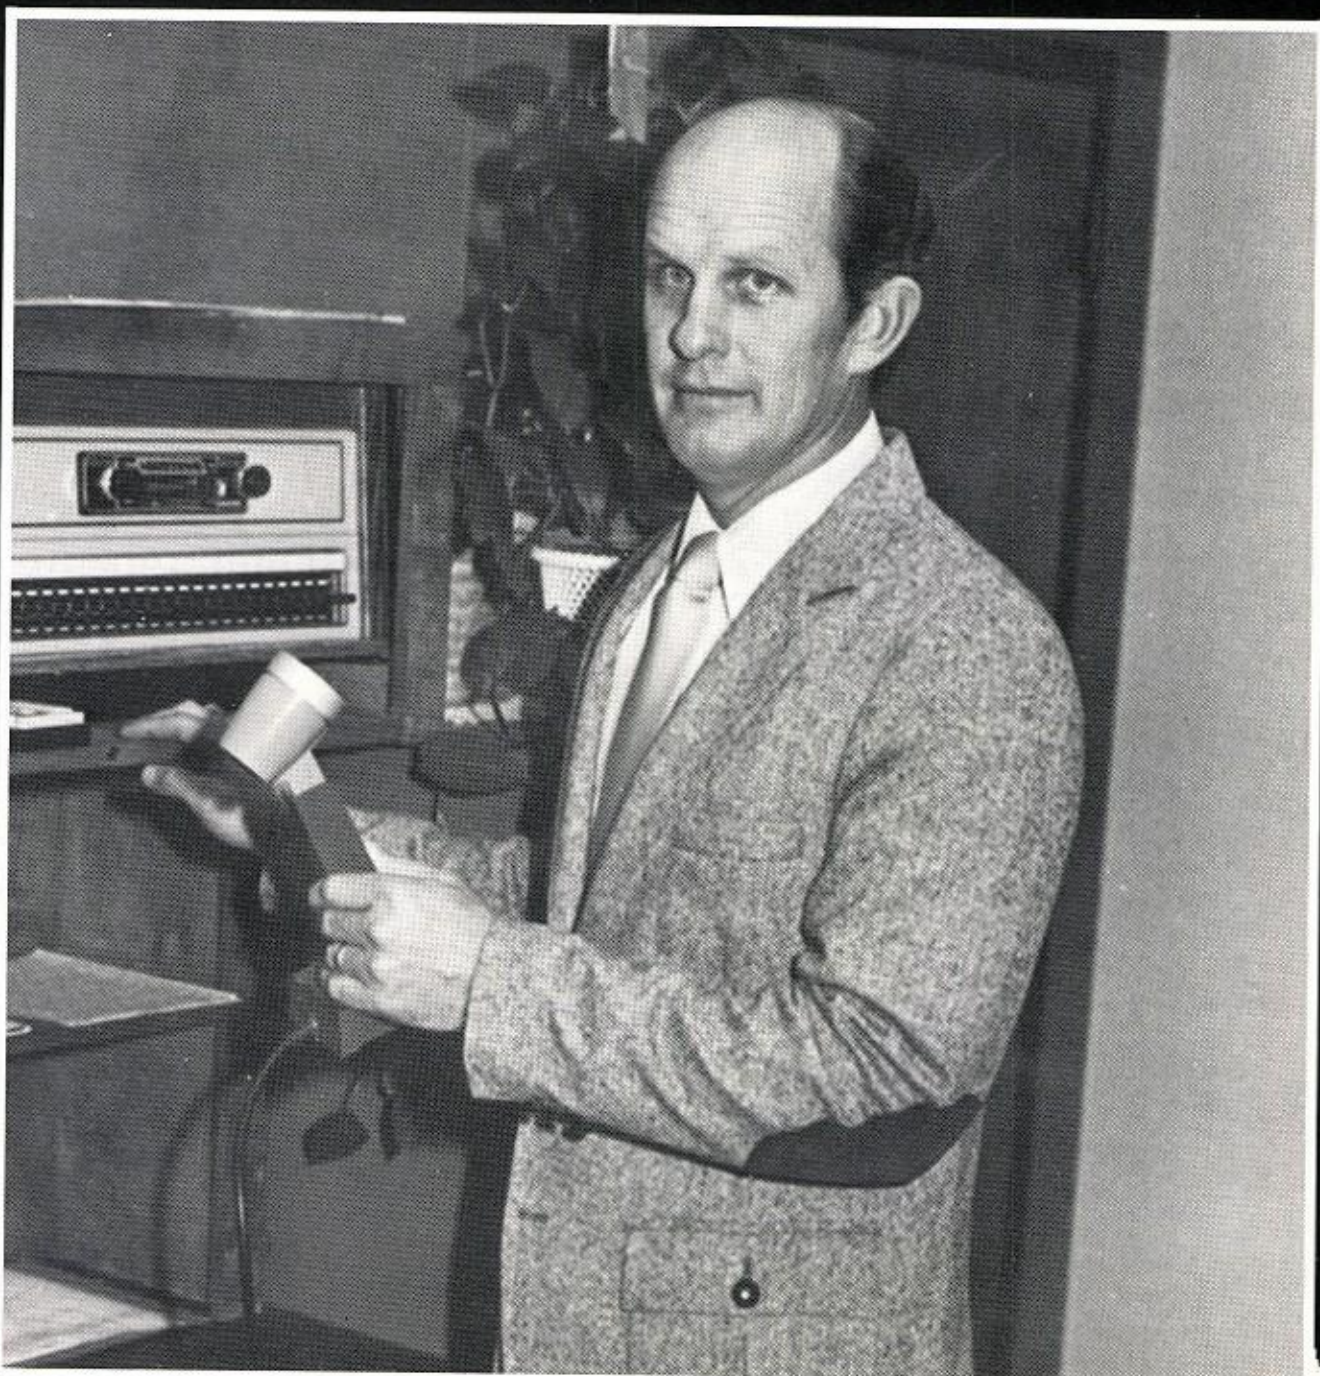

M. L. Barron
